MISSOULA--

Pianist Dennis Alexander, a music instructor at the University of Montana in Missoula, will present a faculty recital at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 26, in the UM Music Recital Hall.

The program, which will feature works by several well known composers, will be open to the public without charge under the sponsorship of the UM School of Fine Arts and Department of Music.

Alexander joined the UM music faculty in September 1972. He received the bachelor of music degree and master of music degree in piano at the University of Kansas, Lawrence,ⁱⁿ 1969 and 1970, respectively, and taught there from 1970-72. Besides his regular teaching duties, Alexander has been solo recitalist and accompanist during a number of musical programs since coming to Missoula.

Works on Tuesday's program include "Sonata (1952)" by Alberto Ginastera, the fifth in the University's "Livart Series," which is focusing attention on the performance of contemporary compositions in the UM Department of Music's public concerts during the 1974-75 academic year.

Other musical compositions during the recital will include "Nocturne in C# minor, Opus 27, No. 1" and "Polonaise in F# minor, Opus 44" by Chopin; "Toccata in C minor" by J.S. Bach; and "Mephisto-Waltz" by Liszt.
